About the Conference:

The tenth annual meeting of the Southeast Public Health Pest & Vector Management Conference continues the tradition of offering a wide variety of topics tailored for environmental, public health, pest and mosquito control professionals. This year's conference starts with an opening full day of plenary presentations followed by two days of concurrent workshops. It will be held at the Convention Center located at the Boardwalk Beach Resort in the heart of the "Emerald Coast" in Panama City Beach, Florida.

Hotel:

A block of rooms has been reserved at the Boardwalk Beach Resort Convention Hotel located adjacent to the convention center at 9600 South Thomas Drive, Panama City Beach, Florida 32408. The hotel is on Gulf of Mexico beach frontage and within minutes of several popular attractions.

Accommodations:

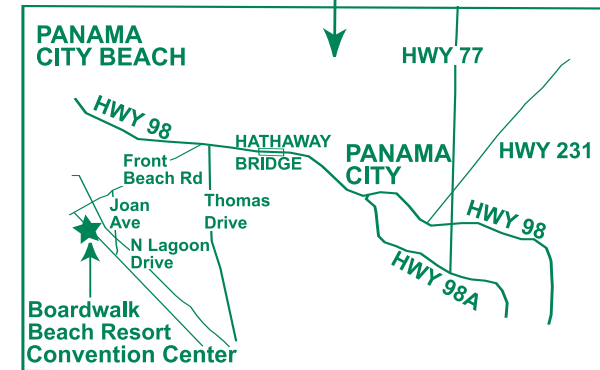

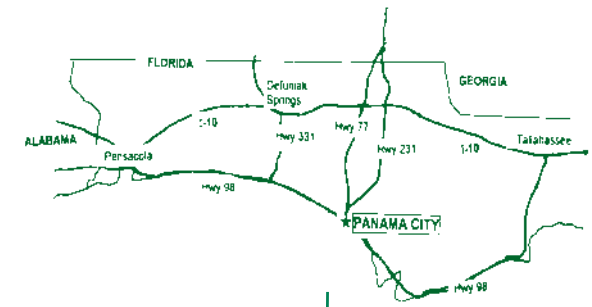

Reservations must be made by calling the Howard Johnson Hotel at the Boardwalk Beach Resort Convention Center at (800)224-4853 no later than January 19, 2006. The hotel rates are $52 single/double plus 11% tax. Identify yourself with the "Florida A&M Conference."
